GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

Paul Grimball, an English merchant, came to the Province of South Carolina in Feb. 1682; on April 10, 1681, Lord Shaftesbury and two others of the Lords Proprietors, address a communication to the Governor and Council, containing among other things, a commission to grant 3000 acres of land to "Mr. Paul Grimball, Merchant bound for Ashley River to settle there."¹

In March 1682/3 he had a warrant for land on Cooper River bounding on land already purchased by him from Samuel Boswood² and in October 1683, he received a warrant for 600 acres due him for arrival of self and servants; he became a Proprietor's deputy in 1683;³ settled on Edisto Island, where in 1686 his house with that of Governor Morton, was sacked by the Spaniards⁴.

He was Secretary of the Province by 1683 and in October 1688 was appointed Receiver General and Escheator;⁵ was a member of the committee to consider the modification of the Fundamental Constitution in July 1687; was disqualified by Seth Sothell from holding office in 1690, and was sent to jail and forcibly dispossessed of the records intrusted to him because he would not deliver the seal used for granting lands;⁶ Grimbball in his petition to the Governor and Council⁷ recites the outrages committed by Sothell and his followers, and among other things states that William Chapman, the constable at CharlesTown with seven others from Berkley County went to the petitioners house on "Edistoh" Island Colleton County "forty miles by water" on February 3, 1691, entered his house with clubs, frightening Mrs. Grimbball and the family, making the search upon the pretence of hunting for public papers and records, from there they went to the house of Mr. John Hamilton "your Petr's sonn in Law" a mile distant, and searched his house under the same pretense.⁸

The Proprietors granted Grimbball a new commission in May 1691.⁹ In April 1693 they wrote to Col. Ludwell transmitting to Mr. Grimbball a power to appoint and remove Judges or Sheriffs of the counties at pleasure; they also stated that Mr. Grimbball complained that he was obliged to stay in town longer than is needful, and requested that the duties of his office be made as little irksome as possible.¹⁰ The Proprietors wrote to Mr. Grimbball June 28, 1695 concerning the appointment of Archdale as Governor, and Grimbball in his will, proved February 20, 1696, requests that a ring be given to Gov. Archdale as a token of respect.

Paul Grimbball made his will December 13, 1696, as Paul Grimbball Esq; of Edisto Island, Colleton County; a full abstract was printed in this Magazine, vo. XI, page 55. He mentions his wife Mary, sons Thomas and John, daughter Providence Grimbball, daughters Mary Hamilton and Ann Linkley; son-in-law Christopher Linkley; the lands mentioned in his will were on Edisto; 1600 acres to his wife for life, and then to his son, Thomas; 400 acres to his daughter Linkley; there is no mention of lands to any of his other children. He had formerly owned lands on Cooper river the plantation known later as Wraggs or Marshland,¹¹ but sold during his life time.

Mary Grimbball, wife of Paul, mentioned several times in the records and Statutes at large as Madam Mary Grimbball, was living in 1711, when she was made guardian of her grand-son Christopher Linkley,¹² but was dead by 1720, when her son Thomas made his will; Mary Grimball left a will but it is now missing.

Paul Grimball the first and his wife Mary had issue:

2. i. Mary Grimball, married to John Hamilton, deputy Secretary of the Province, and had three children by 1695, when John Hamilton of Edisto Island registered a stock mark for them; Hamilton was a member of the House of Assembly in 1696, and 1698, and is mentioned in 1696 as Capt. John Hamilton. There is some evidence that he was the John Hamilton who came out with Lord Cardross and William Dunlap, but this would have to be proved.¹³ Mary Hamilton died before her husband, and he married next Dorothy ———, who administered upon his estate November 6, 1707; after his death she married Thomas Ogle of Edisto Island, survived him also, and died leaving a will dated 1719 which mentions among others, her son-in-law Paul Hamilton.¹⁴

Of the children of John Hamilton, only three are known to be by Mary Grimball: i. Mary Hamilton, born before 1695, married first about 1705, John Wilkins, who died in 1730, she then married Archibald Neal,¹⁵ John Wilkins and Mary Hamilton had issue several children, among them Paul Wilkins, mentioned in the will of his uncle Paul Hamilton. ii. Paul Hamilton, born before 1695, married Martha Bower, daughter of William Bower and his wife Martha Hext; Paul Hamilton died about March 1738/9 when his will was proved, his wife had predeceased him; their children were Paul, John, Archibald, daughters Martha and Dorcas; Paul was a Tory, and died in England about 1799, leaving no issue; Dorcas and John seem to have died young, Martha married Rev. John McLeod, and Archibald (1736-1766) married Rebecca daughter of Ezekial Branford, and was the father of Paul Hamilton, Governor of S. C., and Secretary of the Navy. iii. Ann Hamilton, born before 1695; married first before 1713, David Loughton, no issue; married 2d. George Barnet, one daughter Ann Barnet; married 3d. before 1717, David Hext, and had five daughters¹⁶; her daughter Ann Barnet married in 1731, Charles Codner¹⁷ and had Richard, born 1732, Grace, born 1742, married John Ash, Charles, born 1734, Sabina, born 1735, married William Elliott, Providence married 1761, Joseph Eddings, Ann.

3. ii Ann Grimball daughter of Paul and Mary, married first Christopher Linkley¹⁸ who died in 1699, for in that year his Mother Mary Linkley, in England, gives power of attorney to collect a legacy left her by her son.¹⁹ Christopher Linkley and Ann Grimball had at least one child, Christopher, a minor in 1706, when Lawrence Dennis and Thomas Grimball were appointed his guardians; this second Christopher Linkley married Sarah Jones and died before 1719, for his widow made her will in that year²⁰ mentioning children, but not by name; Christopher Linkley 3d. married Mary Holman in 1735²¹ and died in 1740. Ann Grimball widow of Christopher Linkley, married second before 1699 Charles Odingsell, deputy secretary of the Province under Paul Grimball; their children, so far as known, were, 1, Mary married first Samuel Jones and had issue, married second Capt. Ebenezer Simmons, no issue 2, Ann Odingsell 1706-1754, married first 1724,

John Smith, an English merchant, and second Benjamin D'Harriett, also a merchant²² no issue by either husband; 3, Charles Odingsell, minor in 1718, when his half-brother Christopher Linkley was appointed his guardian²³ died on a trip to Savannah about 1740 leaving issue, Charles, Mary, and possibly others.²⁴ Ann Grimball seems to have married for a third husband, Lawrence Dennis, who afterwards married her sister Providence.²⁵

4. iii. Providence Grimball, daughter of Paul and Mary, unmarried when her father made his will in 1695; she married first Lawrence Dennis,²⁶ and second, November 25, 1733, Ribton Hutchinson; she had no issue. Lawrence Dennis left a will now missing, but from recitals, we find that he left land to Paul Grimball, his nephew by marriage.

Providence Hutchinson made her will 9 January, 1755, proved 27 February, 1756; mentioning many of her friends and relations; she speaks of her husband Ribton Hutchinson and marriage settlement with him; the Antopedo Baptist church, 400 Pounds, and her silver tankard. nephew John

Mrs. Providence Dennis afterwards mentions Benj. d'Harriett and his wife and nephew and niece. As we know that d'Harriett married Anne Odingsell, widow of John Smith, the explanation seem to be that Lawrence Dennis had first married Anne Odingsell, widow, sister of Providence Grimball, and thus Anne d'Harriett was his step daughter.

²⁶ Will of first Paul Grimball.

Jones, neices Elizabeth Baynard, and Providence Grimball "who lives with me" daughters of her nephew Paul Grimball deceased. Nephew Joshua Grimball; neice Mary Simmons now wife of Capt. Ebenezer Simmons and her four children, Samuel Jones, Mary Broughton, John Jones and Charles Jones; neice Mary Simmons and then her daughter Mary Broughton, the mourning ring "I had for my Mother;" Sister Sarah Pitman, in Manchester New England, and her daughter Elizabeth [a sister of Lawrence Dennis]

Late nephew Paul Grimball and his eight children not named; Nephew Thomas Grimball and his four children [not named] Nephew Joshua and his five children; neice Rebecca Grimball; children of nephew Isaac Grimball deceased, all under age; neice Sabina Elliott, wife of William Elliott; three neices Ann Codner, Providence Codner, and Grace Codner; Mrs. Mary Baker, widow of Capt. Francis Baker; kinsman Thomas Hutchinson; nephew Benjamin D'Harriett, "mourning ring I had for my late husband" and 500 pounds; residue to all the children of three nephews, Paul Grimball Esq; deceased. Thomas Grimball, and Isaac Grimball deceased.

5. iv. John Grimball, mentioned in the will of his father; John Grimball, of Charlestown, Hatter, made his will 11 Feb. 1722/3, leaving James Ellis his sole executor; Benjamin Cotell to have all his hat-makers tools. Sons Samuel and John Grimball to have all his property if they come to Carolina within a year and a day;²⁷ the records show nothing further concerning John Grimball's descendants.
6. v. Thomas Grimball, son of Paul and Mary, and the ancestor of all the Grimball's of the name in South Carolina; he married first before 1707, Elizabeth, daughter of William Adams;²⁸ married second, August 8, 1722, Sarah, widow of William Pert, a Baptist minister;

no issue by this marriage; she married next, in 1724, Samuel Scriven, and after his death, Dr. George Smith, a son of the second Landgrave, and died in Philadelphia.

Thomas Grimball and his wife Elizabeth Adams has issue

7. i. Paul Grimball, died about 1750
8. ii. Thomas Grimball, died after 1783
9. iii. Joshua Grimball, died 1757
10. iv. Isaac Grimball, died 1752.

Thomas Grimball of Edisto Island left a will, dated 26 October, 1721, proved Feb. 7, 1722; leaves wife Sarah for widowhood, use of his plantation where he lives; personal estate in to three equal parts, one third to wife for life, then to all his sons. The other two thirds to his four sons, Paul, Thomas, Joshua and Isaac, when the younger sons are 21, son Paul to receive his share immediately three younger sons to be maintained out of labor of their respective slaves, stock of horses, cattle &c.

"All possible Endeavours be used to give each of my Children a competent measure of learning and education, at least that they may be taught to read perfect English, write a legible hand fitt for public business or office, and Arithmetick through the rule of Fellowship."

Son Paul, after death of Wife Sarah, plantation where testator lived, 1000 acres; to son Thomas, 500 acres on Port Royal island;

Son Joshua remaining part of the tract where he lived, situated on Burned House Creek; to son Isaac Grimball land on Edisto Island, 290 acres adjoining Lawrence Dennis and Thomas Parmenter, a grant from Gov. ST. HELENA'S PARISH REGISTER

Copied and arranged for printing by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL AND

The register for St. Helena's parish which we are now printing, is a compilation, begun in 1752, by William Gough; the volume in which it was recorded is a large folio, bound in parchment; the first page is elaborately illuminated in colored floral designs, and ornate lettering which reads as follows:

"St. Helena Parish / P. Register Containing / the Marriages, Births, Baptisms / and Burials which have happened in the said Parish, being transcribed from the old Register & from the / private Minutes of the late Rev'd Lewis Jones Decd."

"Minister / Rev. Wm. Peasely / Church Wardens / , Mr. Andrew Bell / Mr. Wm. Waight [bad break here]

"Vestry Coll. Nath'l [Barnwell] / Coll. Tho's: [Wigg?] / Coll: M[ulryne ?] Capt: Jno: G [break] / Mr. Jno: [Barnwell ?] / Mr. Chas.—, Mr. —"

Between the list of the wardens and the vestry is the Royal Coat of Arms, and just below it appears the following:

"Done at Beaufort in the 25th year of the / Reign of his Majesty George II, and is most / humbly inscribed unto the Revd: the minister, the church / wardens and Gentlemen of the Vestry and the other / the Gentlemen Freeholders of the Said Parish / by their most humble and oblg. Servant / William Gough, St. George, 1752."

The old register is in very bad condition; fortunately a copy was made over twenty-five years ago, and this copy is now the property of this Society.

The register is a rather complicated compilation, arranged in tabular form, running across the double page, and there is an elaborate system of abbreviations and cross references by numbers, too confusing and cumbersome to reproduce. Since it has not been practicable to reproduce the exact form of the original, the subject matter has been put into a new form; the copy is used, after having been carefully verified with the original, loaned by the parish for this purpose: Mr. Joseph W. Barnwell and Miss Webber have done the verifying, and have again checked the copy after the new compilation was made.

With the completion of the printing of the St. Helena register all of the Provincial Church of England registers, which now remain, will have been printed with the exception of the second part of St. Philip's register, beginning 1754. This Society has printed to date, St. Andrews, St. James Santee, and Christ Church besides a fragment in the Independent Congregational (Circular) Church. St. Thomas and St. Dennis, Prince Frederick's and the first part of St. Philips have been printed by others. The other parish registers have long been missing; in a few cases the minutes of the vestry remain where the registers are gone.

The William Gough who began the compilation, the form of which was used until the register was full, was born in London in 1703, and died in Beaufort in May 1758; he has the schoolmaster and auctioneer. The register records the usual details concerning his family; They seem to have come out to Georgia in 1733, and to have shortly after come over to Beaufort. There is no apparent connection between this William Gough and John Gough, who came to Carolina from Barbadoes about before 1709, and left descendants here.

GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

Paul Grimball (Thomas, 2, Paul, 1.) since he is named as executor in his fathers will, was probably born about 1700, and died between Jan. 29, 1749/50 and Jan. 25, 1750/51. He was a planter on Edisto Island, and died there. Paul Grimball married several times, certainly three, and we have the maiden name of only one of his wives, Mary Barnwell, daughter of Col. John Barnwell¹ who seems to have been his second wife. His last wife was Mary, daughter of Susannah Winborn, widow of Thomas Winborn, by a former marriage; after the death of Paul Grimball, this wife, Mary, married Capt. William Lawton for his third wife and after his death, she married again for her third husband, Samuel Fickling²

8.

Thomas Grimball (Thomas, 2. Paul, 1.) not of age when his father made his will in 1721, he inherited land from his father on Port Royall Island, and lived in St. Helena's parish; the name of his wife has not been found; he was living in March, 1779, when his son Thomas made his will; according to the will of his aunt, Providence Hutchinson, he had four children in 1756; the names of only two have been recovered; in one account of the family, a daughter of this Thomas is said to have been one of the wives of John Grimball, son of Isaac, and to have died without issue; this is some what supported by the will of John Grimball, who speaks of Thomas, son of the above Thomas, as his nephew in one place, and as his cousin in another.

Thomas Grimball and his wife (name unknown) had issue:

- i. Thomas Grimball, born 1745, died in Feb. 1783; he was an attorney at law; married June, 1765, Mary Magdalen Prioleau, second daughter of Samuel Prioleau, Esq; he was Major of the CharlesTown Battalion of Artillery; was captured at the surrender of CharlesTown and banished to St. Augustine. His will, dated 6 Mar. 1779,⁶ Thomas Grimball Jr., mentions Honoured father, who is to have £ 100 a year for life, and wife Mary Magdalen Grimball. They had no issue.
13. ii. Joseph Grimball, died intestate before 23d. Oct. 1777, when John Grimball and "Mrs. Sison" administered. The records give very little information concerning him; according to a family account, he married Mary Elliott, and had several children; among them, a son Thomas, who married Ann Audubert, and moved to Mississippi about 1810; this Thomas Grimball is said to have been brought up by Col. John Grimball, son of Isaac. Joseph Grimball had also, daughters Esther and Sarah, for their grandfather Thomas Grimball gives to each of them a negro in 1763, describing them as his grand-daughters.

Other children of Thomas Grimball, of St. Helena's parish if any, unknown.

Joshua Grimball, (Thomas, 2. Paul, 1.) under age when his father made his will Nov. 2, 1757; proved 2d. Dec. 1757; married Mary, ———. He was a planter on Edisto Island; a member of the Baptist Church, and friend of Rev. To daughter-in-law Ann Grimball, relict of his son Paul Grimball, £ 60 curreny for life, to be paid by his three children and grandchild, vizt. Mary Grimball Joshua Grimball, Elizabeth Grimball, and Sarah Maxwell; son Joshua Grimball all Lands, 2320 acres more or less; rest of estate to his three children and grand child, when 18 or married; each of them to have until of age sufficient quantity of land to support their slaves.

Joshua Grimball had issue by his wife [or wives, for from the reading of his will, apparently Mary Grimball was not the mother of his children].

- i. Sarah Grimball, 1738-1757; married William Maxwell, had one child Sarah, who from a mutilated inscription on a tombstone an old Grimball burying ground on Edisto Island seems to have died young.
- ii. Paul Grimball; died intestate before Feb. 9 1757; married Ann Jenkins spinster 8 July, 1756; his widow married William Patureau, 23 Oct. 1760.
14. iii. Joshua Grimball born 1744 or earlier; married 1765 Hannah Rippon, widow.

- iv. Mary Grimball, born 1742 or earlier; married Benjamin Jenkins.⁷
- v. Elizabeth Grimball, married James Clark, before April 2, 1767, when she receipts for her share of her fathers estate as the wife of James Clark; James Clark and Elizabeth Grimball had issue: James Clark, who married 1788, Sarah Grimball, daughter of Charles; Martha Clark, who married 1790, Charles Isaac Grimball, brother of Sarah. Elizabeth Clark, and Sarah Clark.

He had two sons by his first marriage, Henry and William (Will of Ann Livingston, dated 16 May 1732.)

The will of Henry Livingston, of Colleton County dated 29 Jan. 1785, leaves his estate to his [grand?] nephew and [grand?] neice Charles Isaac Grimball and Sarah Grimball. Makes his two nephews Chas. Isaac Grimball and Isaac Jenkins Exors.

Augusta, Sept. 26. Was Killed lately at his House in South-Carolina, Robert Thomas, Esq. one of the senators of this state in the last general assembly: he was shot dead by some person unknown—but it is generally supposed his death was occasioned by his voting for the Yazou bill, and receiving upwards of 4000 dollars for that vote. Died, on Monday night last, at Mount Pleasant, near Dorchester, in the 41st year of his age, capt. Nathaniel Bradwell, late of the continental army. (Sat. Oct. 17, 1795.)

Died suddenly, and alone, on the 6th instant, in the town of Beaufort, the Rev. Matthew Tate, A.M. and pastor of the Episcopal Church in that place, in the 46th year of his age. Mr. Tate had been indisposed, but not confined, for a few days previous to this unexpected and truly affecting event. During this time when visited occasionally by his friends, he conversed with his usual cheerfulness, and refused the constant attention which was proposed and offered, and entirely unnecessary. The very day of his departure, he went down stairs about his concerns, and in the evening, sent his servant to prepare something for his nourishment; but upon her return, she found him lying upon his bed a corpse. This is the more surprising, as Mr. Tate's health had been scarcely ever interrupted by a day's confinement or endangered by an act of intemperance. He was regular and abstemious to an uncommon degree. But, improbable as so sudden a death was in his case, his prudence led him to make the most ample preparations for it. His affairs could not have been settled with more exactness and accuracy, had the manner of his dissolution been ever so probable, or even inevitable. In Mr. Tate, learning, the religious, and the poor, have lost a sincere friend. He shared, it is true, in the common lot of humanity, in having his foibles; but they were over-weighted by many good qualities. He was the author of many charities, which could be dictated by nothing but the purest and most disinterested benevolence.

SWISS SETTLERS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

By R. W. KELSEY, of Haverford College, Pa.

The following translations are descriptive of the Swiss settlements in southern South Carolina, along the Savannah River. Purrysburg was settled through the efforts of John Peter Purry, of Neufchâtel, Switzerland. The actual settlement began apparently in 1732. The climate turned out to be poor, the settlers did not prosper, and they gradually scattered to more favored places in South Carolina or elsewhere.

The two following descriptions, so contradictory in their conclusions, illustrate in outstanding fashion the difficulty of valuing critically the accounts of uncritical writers. Such variety of opinion must have been equally baffling to prospective emigrants in Switzerland. Of the two characterizations, "an earthly paradise," and "a damned fraud," the more profane phrase seems more nearly to have gained the warrant of history.

The pastor referred to in the Gondy letter was the Reverend Joseph Bügnion, a Swiss minister, who received Episcopal ordination in England as he passed through that country on his way to South Carolina.

A detailed description of the Purrysburg settlement, by Judge Henry A. M. Smith, was printed in the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, 10 (Oct., 1909): 187-219.

The German manuscripts from which the translations were made are in classification, "Auswanderung A," in the Staatsarchiv at Basel, Switzerland. The Dyssli letter is a contemporary copy. The one by Gondy may also be a copy, although the archivists at Basel believe it is the original.

The present writer wishes to acknowledge the skilled help of his former teacher, Dr. Adolph Gerber, in preparing the following translations.

LETTER FROM ANTHONY GONDY, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, TO HIS BROTHER IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF LAUSANNA, SWITZERLAND

"Schaletton [Charleston] May 28, 1733 S. C.

Dear brother:

I did not wish to fail to report to you upon our condition and life in Carolina. Because Rev. Pignaud has left for Purisburg, where he has been engaged as pastor, and made me the solemn promise to send my letter together with his own to England and to recommend strongly that it be duly forwarded to Switzerland, hence I wished to report by these lines that by the help of God we, some 170 persons, arrived here safely and in good health after having been out on the sea 11 weeks. People in Virginia showed us much and great kindness and received us with such hospitality that it is indescribable. Thence we went to Purisburg where we were treated in the same manner and entertained hospitably for fully 6 weeks and where cousin Marianne married a man worth 50 m. [thousand ?] dollars (Thaler), who was a widower and had an only child by his first wife. He made over to her all he owns and possesses. He is a Palatine, born at Speier, by the name of Thomas Baumgartner. We attended the wedding and had a very good time. The new cousin presented me with 8 horses for the journey.

Thence we came to Charlestown, where we were again entertained hospitably as at Purisburg. Then the Commissary took us to the Savannah, a large river abounding with fish, 8 leagues, Swiss leagues, from the sea, where we built our cabins; there we assigned 50 yokes [here probably = acres] of good land, women as well as men. The soil is exceedingly good, rich and fertile. Now nobody in this country works more than 2 m. [= months]. The remainder of the time he may go fishing or hunting. There are Indians living among us, the best people, except that we cannot talk to each other, but must communicate with each other by tokens and signs. They go half naked and have only a deer skin about their loins. For the rest they do nothing but fish and hunt, know of no other work nor like to do any other work. We have provided well for all our single women, who consisted of 13 persons. They have all been favorably married. In the old country they would not have had such good fortune. Our children have become as much acclimated to this country as if they had had been born here, because the air is so very healthful. Yet it is as hot all the year round as near Lausanne in August. Winter is unknown. When we have winter, there is occasionally a cold dew or rain, yet only by night. As soon as day comes it is warm again. There are also exceedingly fine large trees in the forests, oaks about 10 feet in diameter and more, and bearing very many acorns, so that the domesticated and wild hogs do not lack food in summer and winter. The cattle are allowed to go outdoors in summer and winter like the game. This country is quite an earthly paradise. There is plenty of all one desires.

Since the Swiss people came here, they make cheese and butter, which the people did not have before. They have also planted vines in various places which yield good wine, but they have not the presses and casks as in Europe. If, therefore, our neighbors of Morges, Nyon, St. Pré, Etoy, Aubronne, Rolle, wish to come over here, they should bring coopers with them, also whatever artisans they can get, who will become prosperous and wealthy people in this Canaan. We have immense forests from 8 to 10 days long and wide. They teem with game like ants. I and cousin Albert went hunting once with the Indians, to see how they shoot the game with their bows and arrows. It is a curious thing, but we almost missed our way home, so that we should have been obliged to pass the night with the wild beasts in the forest, if one of the Indians had not found the way by which we had entered. There are in the forests cypress trees of astonishing size, nuts, chestnuts, citrons, oranges, lemons, pomegranates, dates, jujubes, and a thousand kinds of other trees and fruit, herbs, roots. If one of our doctors of medicine could come to this country and had a knowledge of herbs, he might discover all sorts of delicious things there are herbs of quite delicious odor. We have all we want except wine, which is imported from England or Spain, so that it costs 4 shillings a quart. For the rest we feel as if we were living in a terrestrial paradise. There are a thousand kinds of birds of all sorts of colors, red, white; large and small parrots; also a kind, of which it is said none has yet been carried to Europe, which is green and like pure gold, mingled with gray, the name of which nobody knows. The Indians call them Pitivaor. They sing as beautifully as a musical instrument, wonderfully sweet, like small flutes.

My pen cannot possibly describe the loveliness and charm of this country, and who does not come himself to this country cannot possibly believe it. I could not have believed it either if I had not seen it myself for it has been with me as with the unbelieving Thomas. What I heard related about this country in Switzerland I just regarded as a fable, but everything is even much lovelier, better and more beautiful than it was described. The Europeans have about 300-400 chickens, geese, ducks, about 6-700 pigs, 200 cows, about 400 horses. In short, it is incredible; wherefore I ask all our friends and relatives who are not of great means that they may please join us here. They will thank me for it.

Nor is the voyage at all so dangerous as we were made to believe, yet it is well if many people come together. It is less expensive. It is also well if they bring artisans of all kinds with them who are getting along best of all. They are making as much as they please, particularly the blacksmiths, cart-wrights, carpenters, masons, potters, rope-makers, linen-workers who also know how to weave cloth, because there is very much cotton here, whole forests full of it. Also all poor females who are of scanty means should come along to America if they are virtuous and sensible. They will all get along nicely inasmuch as all can make their fortune, for here men do not care for the money as they do in Switzerland. Dear brother, I feel sure that these lines will appear to you as a veritable fable, but I should be ashamed of myself if I told in them a single word not based upon truth. I am looking for you and your entire family.

A thousand regards to you, your wife, dearest children and friends! I commend you all together to the protection of the Most High.

Antony Gondy."

LETTER FROM SAMUEL DYSSLI, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, TO HIS MOTHER, BROTHERS AND FRIENDS IN SWITZERLAND

“Carlestatt [Charleston] in Carolina,
Dec. 3, 1737.

Praised be the Lord to the end of the heavens! In the name of Jesus my special childlike and kind regards in the first place to you, my dear mother, and to you, my dear brother Albrecht, as well as to the dear children and other brothers and sisters, friends, relatives and acquaintances! In haste I send you these few words from Carolina, through a good friend who has gone back to Switzerland. I am over here, thank God, hale and hearty, and doing at present quite nicely. I am working with an English master. He gives me every week two Bern kronen, say 50 shillings, and a plentiful board, food and drink in abundance, in addition. I have already been half a year with him. Apart from this, I was ill with fever in Purisburg about 3 months, and afterwards in Georgia at Savannah, the capital, I had the bloody flux [?] or dysentery for about six months. Also a great swelling befell me. My whole belly was swollen so that I might have burst. My doctor in these perilous times was our Lord God, for I did not take medicine from men, but trusted myself to divine care. My heart trembles when I think of the following, that once upon a farm, where many people were together and felling large trees, calling to each other when one was about to fall, when I was passing by there, a mighty large oak fell over me which ordinarily would have crushed me to atoms. But the hand of the Lord ordained that I come through between the branches and remained unhurt. Oh, how much the prayer of pious parents can accomplish! How sincerely I have always felt that on the part of my mother!

To report something of the quality of this country, I herewith wish to have everybody warned that he should not hanker to come into this country, for diseases here have too much sway, and people have died in masses, [now the children leaving their parents] then the parents leaving their children. Moreover, the children soon go [to work] the one here the other there, and are treated like slaves and brought up in ignorance like the savages. Nor are provisions given any more to the new comers, as used to be done. Moreover, everything is exceedingly dear, e.g. a pound of butter, 7½ shillings, a pound of cheese 5 shillings, white wine 5 shillings a quart, red wine 10 shillings, beer 3 shillings.* What is bought in Switzerland for a kreutzer is here a shilling. Besides the quart in this country is no larger than half a Bern "maass," the pound is also very small. In short everything is dreadfully dear. Cheapness has retired into the raw ox- or cattle-hide, an ox-hide, indeed without distinction the largest, is 20 shillings, just think, 20 shillings, and the pound of leather 2 shillings.

Carolina looks more like a negro country than like a country settled by white people. In Charleston and that neighborhood there are calculated to be always 20 blacks, who are called negroes, to one white man, but they are all slaves. The whites mix with the blacks and the blacks with the whites, and if a white man has a child by a black woman, nothing is done to him on account of it. Such swinishness is not punished in this country. There are brought large shiploads of these people from the African negro country. Thereupon they are put on the market and sold as a head of cattle is sold. It also occurs that the English marry, nay, mar themselves, by marrying black women, often also Indian women.

Regarding the savages: these savages are by no means terrible, ferocious brutes, as many may imagine. If one lets them alone, they will not do harm to anybody. They are kind natured, well built, strong people, but alas! they do not know anything at all of the true God. If, however, they are harmed by somebody, there is no reconciliation any more, but they try to avenge themselves in any possible way. They live like the birds of heaven, do not work, do not sow, but go hunting, pursue the deer very vigorously and the bears. There are also mighty, large buffaloes, wild ones, also tigers, wolves, wildcats twice as large as the domesticated, beavers, crocodiles. These are more than plenty, but they do no great damage. The rattle snake is a huge animal. There are some which are as thick as an ale-pot and thicker, yet they pursue no one, unless he steps on them unawares.

* So. Ca. currency was then about 1/7 the value of sterling.

My journey hither was quite safe, thank God. On the way through France we found kind people everywhere. In London I spent 2 weeks. Across the great sea we were especially favored, for we got across in 6 weeks. God gave us very welcome winds. Our captain said he had never had such a good passage in all his life. When we were a fortnight out on the sea, we came to the exceedingly beautiful island of Madeira. There we saw the first flying fish, many hundreds of them together. Two of them dropped on our vessel. Besides, we saw horribly large fishes near our vessel. They drew in large streams of water and spit them out again with a horrible rushing and snorting.

In the meantime I tell you once more: Let nobody hanker to come to this country! True, there have come to Switzerland people whom I know well, and they have had villainous letters with them, as if Carolina were such a good country, but it is a damned fraud. If one man is well off, about 1000 others are so much the worse off. As reported above, I am at present, thank God, so well off that it would be a sin if I desired anything better. But what of it? One swallow does not make a spring. I ought to answer Puri's mendacious booklet, paragraph by paragraph, but I have not time. All citizens be kindly warned, especially those who eventually would send sons abroad, that they beware of enlisting to work in their professions in this country, unless they desire to get into great slavery, as it has happened to many whom I know quite well.

If it please God, I hope to write to you more in detail from Philadelphia or Pennsylvania in half a year hence. I must close. May the God of all grace give his peace to all of you! Amen!

N.B. My regards to cousin Andreas Grimm! Have him also read this letter.

John Grimball (Paul 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1), son of Paul Grimball (7) and his third wife Mary—, was born between Nov. 1746, and December 1747, for on December 2, 1768, he gives receipt to William Maxwell, executor of Joshua Grimball deceased, who was the surviving executor of Paul Grimball, for the personal property and titles of lands, left to him by his father.¹ James Wright and James Robert witnesses.

On December 14, 1768, as John Grimball of St. Lukes Parish, planter, he released to Thomas Searson, 194 acres, part of 1000 acres originally granted to Capt. Charles Odingsell, bounding west on Col. Daniel Heyward, South on John Grimball, East on the estate of John Sealy, and — on branch of Port Royal River.²

On 25 Nov. 1773, as John Grimball, son of Paul, he gives bond for £10000 to John Grimball, son of Isaac, to secure the latter from any obligation which might arise from the fact that John, son of Paul, had been buying and selling lands and negroes under the appellation of John Grimball, Junior, when it should have been Senior; signed John Grimball Sr., James Pelot, Samuel Pelot and John Swinton witnesses.³

On 26 July, 1778, as of St. Peter's Parish, with Elizabeth his wife, planter, he conveys to Abraham Ginerat (?) 400 acres in several tracts, on New River, Calf Pen Bay, sold to him by Elias Robert, John Audebert and Elias Robert witnesses.⁴

A family record states that this John Grimball married Elizabeth Robert, a daughter of Jacques Robert and Elizabeth Jaudon, this is confirmed by a Robert family chart; his sister Ann Grimball, married Peter Robert Junr., brother to Elizabeth, and to the Elias Robert of the deed above.⁵ John Grimball died before Feb. 6, 1795, for on that date Paul Grimball Junr., of Beaufort district conveyed to William Evans of Edisto Island, two tracts of land, in all 600 acres, conveyed to Paul Grimball Sr. of Edisto Island 10 Nov. 1750, by Richard Ash. The said 600 acres at the death of Paul Grimball Sr. fell to his son Paul, as heir at law; this second Paul died leaving an only child and daughter Martha, at whose death, without issue, the said lands reverted to Paul Grimball Junr., by right of his father John Grimball, who was eldest brother to the said Paul Grimball, son of Paul.⁶

According to a family record, Elizabeth Robert, widow of John Grimball, married after his death, Rev. Alexander Scott, moved to Woodville, Miss. in 1810, and died in 1818 at Bayou Boeuf, La. A son by her second marriage was a Governor of Miss.

John Grimball and his wife Elizabeth had issue:

- i. Paul Grimbail Junr. of St. Peters Parish, Beaufort Dist. born 11 Oct. 1773; died 23 April, 1841, in Rapides parish, La. Married Esther Jaudon, born in S. C. 12 July 1777, died in Rapides parish, La., 22 Oct. 1822. They are said to have had five daughters; Mary, who married John Calihan; Sarah Robert, born in S. C. Oct. 4, 1805, married in Louisiana, Dr. J. D. Wright; Ann, who married Mr. Foland?; Jane, a Mr. Pompfrey, and Amanda, a Mr. Crawford.
- ii. John Grimball, have no data concerning him beyond a family chart which states that he moved away about 1806, with 60 people, all of the family connection; he is also stated to have married a first cousin, Mary (or Ann) Robert, daughter of Peter Robert and Ann Grimball, and have had three daughters, Sarah, Esther and Elizabeth, and one Son, Paul Jabez Grimball, who married and left issue.
- iii. Providence Grimball, who married a Mr. McNeely.

C. and to have moved with his family to Miss. about 1810, and died there; the issue of Thomas Grimball and Ann Audibert were: 1. John A. 16.

John Grimball (Isaac 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.), son of Isaac Grimball and his second wife Rebecca Sealy, was born according to the family account, 12 Sept. 1748; his tombstone, in the Unitarian (formerly Congregational) Church Yard, states that he died Nov. 8, 1804, aged 53 years, which brings his birth date in the year 1751; this John Grimball had lands in St. Luke's Parish, Fairfield plantation, and owned a house on South Bay in Charleston; according to his family, he was married at least six times, one wife being his cousin, a daughter of Thomas Grimball (no. 8), and sister to Major Thomas Grimball, Jr. and to Joseph Grimball (no. 13), this is supported by the will of John Grimball, who calls Thomas Grimball, son of Joseph, his nephew. John Adams.¹¹ The family account states that he married two Miss Berkley's; certainly he married some time in April, 1797, Elizabeth Berkley, daughter of Mr. John Berkley, of Wilton, planter; John Grimball being then described as of Beaufort District, planter, the marriage settlement was dated 21 April, 1797, Paul Hamilton of St. Bartholomew's Parish, and Morton Waring of Charleston being the trustees; the date of marriage is given in the Circular (Congregational) Church register, as April 2, 1797.

John Grimball's will, dated 17 December, 1801, proved 16 April, 1806, describes him as being of St. Luke's Parish Beaufort District, planter. Paul Grimball (Joshua 4. Joshua 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.), born 1766, died 1832, married June 1787, Sarah Chaplin of St. Helena (1766-1832); his uncle in law, James Clark was appointed his guardian in October, 1781; on 14 Oct. 1789, as Paul Grimball of Edisto Island, with Sarah his wife, he conveyed to Ralph Bailey of same place the plantation called Point of Pines, 1262 acres, bounding North on North Edisto River, East on Josiah Mikell and Paul Hamilton, South on William Mikell, West on Thomas Whaley, Joseph Fickling and James Clark.¹³ This plantation was part of a grant of 1500 to the first Paul Grimball, who seems to have left it to his wife for life, and then to his son Thomas; Thomas Grimball seems to have divided it between his son Paul (1000 acres) and his son Joshua (500 acres). Paul apparently gave 500 acres of his tract to his daughter Ann, and his son-in-law, John Paul Grimke; and Grimke sold this 500 acres to Joshua Grimball, June 20, 1749¹⁴ the bounds then being N.E. on Joshua Grimball, S.E. on Paul Grimball, west on — Sams; the titles of all of this land have not been followed.

Paul Grimball and Sarah Chaplin had issue:

- i. Paul Chaplin Grimball born at St. Helena's March 17, 1788; died Oct. 3, 1864; married 1814, Eliza (Jenkins) Hanscome, widow, eldest daughter of Benjamin Jenkins.¹⁵ She was born 8 Aug. 1786, and died 19 Dec. 1850, buried in St. John's Churchyard, John's Island; Paul Grimball is buried in Sumter District. They had issue: 1. Eliza Ann 1815-1836. 2. Benjamin Jenkins, 1820-1838. 3. Isaac Paul, 1822-1898, married 1845 Eliza Jenkins, (1836-1901) they had six children, some of whom have left issue. 4. Thomas Hanscome, 1824-1864, married 1857, Sarah Patterson Bailey, who died 1914; his will is on file in Barnwell; he left issue living, one son Henry Bailey Grimball who married and has issue. 5. Pauline, 1830-1888, married Robt. C. McFadden and left issue.

- ii. William Grimball, died young.
- iii. Isaac, married Ann Croskeys, lived and died in Waterboro; left no male issue.

For the names of the later generations we have been dependent upon family information, and for lack of space are unable to bring the various lines down to date. The Compiler does not claim that the genealogy is complete, but hopes that it will be of assistance to any one interested.

² The imperfection of the Julian computation of the annual calender, occasioned the Gregorian calendar to be adopted in many parts of Europe. In England it was not adopted till the year 1752, when the error required the intercalation of eleven days. Accordingly, by an Act of Parliament of that year, the 3rd of September was made the 15th; and the year which was heretofore reckoned as commencing in March, was ordered to commence the first day of January. (S. C. St. at Large, V. 4, P. 6.)

On his return from Columbia, he was seized with a bleeding at the nose, which exhausted him gradually till his life came to a close. He was a friend to virtue and piety; and a foe to vice in every form. The fidelity and patriotism which he exhibited as a public character, are too well known and acknowledged, by most of his numerous acquaintance, to need any encomium or eulogium.

Although he had several sons and a daughter, who were married, he has left no descendent but one grand son by Mrs. Smith, who was the last of his children. ORIGINAL RULES AND MEMBERS OF THE CHARLES- TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY

The Charleston Library Society owes its origin to a number of young gentlemen who, in 1748, met and formed an association for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase pamphlets and magazines which were published in Great Britain. They remitted to England ten pounds sterling, as a fund to purchase such pamphlets as had recently appeared, acting at first under verbal agreement, and without a name. Before the close of the year their views became more extensive, and on the 28th December they were organized under the name of a Library Society, and arrangements were made for the acquisition of books as well as of pamphlets¹.

Officers were elected on the 1st of April, 1749, and some members were added that year; the association seems to have immediately filled a need in the Province, and by April, 1750, the Library Society was well organized, with rules, officers, and a respectable list of members, as is shown below.

The names of the first members of the Charles-Town Library Society have been preserved in two publications; Shecut's Medical and Philosophical Essays, printed in 1819, and in the Oration delivered by J. L. Petigru upon the first centennial of the founding of the Society, June 13, 1848. The names, as given by Shecut, are as follows: Alexander McCauley, Patrick MacKie, William Logan, James Grindlay, Morton Brailsford, Robert Brisbane, Paul Douxsaint, Alexander Baron, John Sinclair, John Cooper, Peter Timothy, Wm. Burrows, Chas. Stevenson, John Neufville, Jr.,

Thomas Sacheverell, Samuel Brailsford, Thos. Middleton. To these, Mr. Petigru adds Joseph Wragg Jr. and Samuel Wragg Jr.; the authority for these two lists seems to be now missing; the original records of the Society having passed through fires, storms and wars.

The rules and list of members appear in the South Carolina Gazette, April 26, 1750, as follows:

Mr. Timothy,

It having been agreed, at the last general meeting of the CHARLES-TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY, that their RULES should be printed; I have by order of the President, herewith inclosed you a copy, which, with the names of the members, you are desired to insert in your next Gazette. April 21st, 1750.

John Remington, Secr. to the Society.

Rules of the Society for erecting a LIBRARY, and raising a FUND for an ACADEMY at CHARLES-TOWN SOUTH CAROLINA; begun the 28th of December, 1748.

Any member appointed to serve on a committee, refusing or neglecting to give due attendance at such committee, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding three pounds, to be adjudged of by a majority of the members present at the next general meeting.

NOTE

An explanation of the way in which this register was saved during the Confederate War, may be of interest. Capt. Edward Barnwell for many years warden of St. Helena's Parish had it in his possession when he died in 1860. When Beaufort was evacuated in November 1861, his widow, Mrs. Sarah Caroline Barnwell (born Richardson) took it with her, preserved it during the war, and after it was over sent it to Mr. Robert Barnwell Rhett, Editor of the Charleston "Mercury," at his request, to allow him to obtain certain information about his family. He kept it until he removed to Huntsville, Ala., and left it with the Charleston Library Society. Some years afterwards, at the request of the Vestry, it was returned to them.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY GAZETTE

Married on Tuesday evening last by the rev. Mr. Jenkins, Elias Lynch Horry, esq. to the amiable Miss Jennings, daughter of Daniel Jennings esq. deceased, late of this city merchant. (Friday, Oct. 28, 1796.)

Died, On Thursday morning last, in the 35th year of his age, after a severe indisposition of fifteen days continuance, Mr. Adam Ewing, of this city, merchant. During a residence of near sixteen years, such was his cheerful disposition, affable demeanor, benevolence, and integrity in his dealings, as to gain him many friends in this city, who now sincerely lament his early death. He has left behind him to mourn his loss, six small children, who about two years ago had the unhappiness to be deprived of their mother. His remains were conveyed, on the evening of the day he died, to the Presbyterian church, attended by a large concourse of citizens, who were conscious of the virtues which endeared him to society. A discourse well adapted to the occasion, was delivered by the rev. doctor Buist, the pastor of that congregation. (Saturday, Oct. 29, 1796.)

Married on Thursday evening last, in St. James's parish by the rev. Mr. Pugson, Basil Lanneau, esq. to Miss Anne Vinyard, daughter of Mr. John Vinyard deceased. (Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1796.)

Died, lately in Pennsylvania, at the seat of John Penn, esq. on Schuyskill, near Philadelphia, near Phylidelphia, James Heyward, Esq. of this city. Mr. Heyward served reputably as a volunteer in the American Army at the siege of Charleston, in our late Revolutionary war; and afterwards held a commission of captain lieutenant in the city corps of artillery. It may be truly said of him, that he was a warm friend, an affectionate relation, a worthy citizen, a brave and benevolent man.

Snatched hence, bereav'd of vital breath,
Clasp'd in the cold embrace of death;
Snatch'd from bright scenes without alloy,
Domestic comfort, social joy—
Good, pleasure, ease, that charm our race
Gay fortune's plum and smiling face,
In the full hour of manhood's bloom,
Lo! Heyward sleeps in yonder tomb!
The sprightly note, convivial bowl—
The feast of friendship, flow of soul,
Or joy more gently sweet and gay,
Stirs not his cold unconscious clay.
Deaf to affection's tender tone
The sigh of grief, the sorrowing moan;
Torpide and deaf the insensate ear
Hears not her voice it loved to hear.

His remains were interred in the Roman Catholic Church, of which he was a member, on Sunday evening, attended by his relations and friends. (Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1797.)

Died, yesterday morning, Mr. Edgar Wells, merchant of this city. His friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral this afternoon, at four o'clock.

Died, on the 2d inst. at Long-Cane, in Abbeville county, district of Ninety-Aix, in the 80th year of his age, Doctor John De La Howe. As a practitioner of physic, he was eminent in this country, for upwards of 30 years past; as a man of extensive learning he had few equals, and his benevolence endeared him to all who knew him. About twelve years ago he retired to Abbeville county, of which he was made a judge; there his whole time was spent in assisting those who stood in need of his advice. By his last will, having no children, he has left his estate to support a public school in Abbeville county. (Wednesday Jan. 18, 1797.)

Died, on Wednesday night, the 14th of December, at Presqu'isle, his Excellency Anthony Wayne, commander in chief of the federal army.

Extract of a letter from Captain Henry De Butts, to the secretary of war, dated Presqu'isle, December 15th, 1796.

"It is with extreme concern I discharge the melancholy duty of announcing to you the death of Major General Anthony Wayne, who, after an exceeding painful visitation of the gout, expired this morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock.

This disorder attacked him about the 17th ultimo, during a very favourable passage from Detroit hither, where we arrived on the evening of the succeeding day—it by turns affected his feet, knees and hands, with a considerable degree of inflammation and a great degree of pain, until about the 30th, when the violence of both beginning gradually to abate, inspired flattering hopes of his speedy recovery: alas! it appeared that the gout had taken possession of his stomach, where it remained with unconquerable obstinacy and extreme torture, until it put a period to his existence. His remains will be interred to-morrow, within the fort, with military honors."

Died, on Tuesday last, Mr. Edgar Wells, merchant, and was interred on Wednesday evening, at the Methodist Episcopal church. He was the first person that joined that society in this city, and continued a member of it during the remaining part of his life. . . . He was the loving kind affectionate husband; the fond generous beneficent father; and the benevolent, humane master. . . . An oration was delivered on the occasion, by the Rev. Doctor Coke. . . . (Saturday, Jan. 21 1797.)

The body of a man was lately found on Sewee Bay, in a sailor's dress, but so disguised that it was not possible to know who he might have been. A watch found upon him is left with the Printer here of, with a view of leading to a discovery. It is a yellow metal watch, with a chased case.

Married, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Keith, Jacob Ford, esq. to Miss Ann Motte Peronneau, youngest daughter of Arthur Perronneau, deceased, late merchant of this city. (Monday, Jan. 23, 1797.)

Married, last evening, by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Mr. James Poyas, to the amiable Miss Ann Frierson, both of this city. (Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1797.)

Died, on the 4th inst. at Leogane, capt. Benjamin Parker, late master of the schooner Three Friends, belonging to this port. A few days before his death capt. Parker had taken his passage in the schooner Alexander, having determined to abandon his vessel, as there was no prospect of her being acquitted. Walking on the deck he by some accident fell down the hatchway; he was so much injured by the fall that he died shortly after. He was a native of Newbury-Port.

[The same paper gives the arrival of the schooner Alexander, Newcome, master, 14 days from Leogane.] (Thursday, Jan. 26, 1797.)

On Monday evening was married, by the rev. Mr. Mills, Mr. John Izard Wright, esq. youngest son of Alexander Wright, esq. to Miss Rebecca Izard, eldest daughter of Ralph Izard, jun. esq.

Married, on Thursday Evening last, by the rev. Mr. Furman, Mr. James Lawson, to the amiable Miss Beattay, both of this city, (Saturday, Jan. 18, 1797.)

Married, by the rev. Parson Frost, on Saturday last, George Manson, ship carpenter, to the amiable relict of the deceased Captain Jacob Milligan, harbor-master of this port. (Monday, Jan. 30, 1797.)
